

Scheduleurm certificate: from heterogeneous actions to bounded stability claims

a

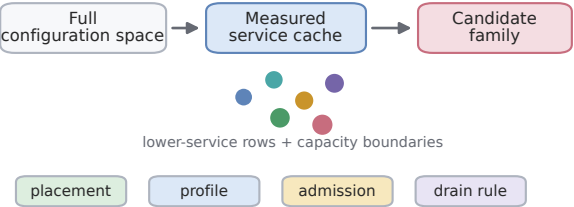

Four workload regimes define the action fabric

Candidate actions are placements + co-location profiles + drain rules.

b

Measured finite actions replace informal sweet spots a candidate action is a configuration trajectory

External policies become finite diagnostic action rows on the same service cache

c

The theorem checks slack, not slogan-level dominance

Schematic; external policies are diagnostic action families, not universal full-stack baselines.